Haberdashery

The delicate drape of Haberdashery's latest product launch calms and intrigues the eye. Inspired by the florals of early spring, Bloom is finely crafted from translucent porcelain petal shapes. Each stylised Bloom bud, like teardrops softly cascading down, is lit from the inside, creating a soft glowing illumination adding serene, understated composure to your space. An ideal solution to complement your spiral staircase.

Porta Romana

Interlocking minimal shapes create a sophisticated multidimensional centrepiece. When lit up, the soft geometry and curves accentuate to provide an ingenious radiance. If you need to finish off your entrance space with a modest but defined eloquent ceiling feature, this could be your answer. Be sure to look out for the sister product, Bianca Lamp, launching in September
